

Membres du Conseil d'administration

Lise Hartman de Fouchier

Lise Hartman de Fouchier was born in 1957, graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Rutgers University and studied two years at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University. She began her professional career in Washington D.C. as research director and segment producer on American Interests, a weekly foreign affairs program on PBS television. In 1983, she became a Senior Associate/Producer of educational films within the Nuclear Proliferation Project of the Roosevelt Center for American Policy Studies. In 1986, she became Legislative Assistant for foreign and defense policy for Congressman Howard L. Berman (D-CA), where she staffed his legislative agenda on Proliferation, Anti-Terrorism, Foreign Assistance, International Economic and Trade issues. In 1991, she became Staff Director of the Subcommittee on International Operations of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, responsible for authorizing legislation for the State Department, U.S. Information Agency, and Board for International Broadcasting. Between 1993 and 1997, she was an independent consultant based in Paris. Since 1998, she has worked for the French-American Foundation -- France, and since 2003, as a Member of its Directoire. She is co-Producer of the documentary: "The Other Nuclear Arms Race" and author of an essay "Controlling the Proliferation of Missiles" in Arms Control & the New Middle East Security Environment, edited by Shai Feldman and Ariel Levite in 1994.